Objective of the Program:The presentation model specifies the structure and graphical components of displays, how the components are connected to application data, the visual appearance of each component, and how the components are laid out. Model presentation (for non working models only) is an effective way of representing and describing an innovative idea. Now a day's lots of different technologies are available for implementing an innovative idea. Every student has different thinking capacity and area of interest. This is an opportunity to exercise their technical mind.

Model presentation is a unique competition where students are encouraged to convert their ideas into models (non working) & also understand the difficulties which arrive during its practical implementation. Also by interacting with students of different institutes they will understand many different prospective. This is a chance to apply all the theoretical engineering knowledge that has been taught in the class rooms. So, we are providing a platform to demonstrate model making talent for students. Presentation model helps students to practice a lot in their speaking.
